

Rush Church Survey Results: continued

What attracted you to this church: youth involvement in worship service, Pastor Bill, activities

What prevents you from getting more engaged: “Politics,” Not interested in serving on committees: don’t always experience God’s presence, “Hymns,” Don’t like night-time driving

What new activities would you like to see added: weeknight clubs: sewing, knitting, quilting, crocheting; parent community groups; yearly mission trips; game night; something for widowers; youth exercise class (“I can help – Adam Dalton”)

What do you like about the worship service at Rush UMC: all are welcome, socialization, service structure, interaction with others, music, messages of faith, activities, get-togethers, hymns, choir, meaningful message, time to be present with the Lord, the songs, band, community, relaxed atmosphere, everything, being able to know most of the congregation, congregation involvement, music variety and children, music & fellowship, music & sermon, always Christ centered, sermons & hymns, familiar, Sunday school, welcoming, the people, the band and Jesus, the band, traditional hymns & the people, children & praise music, children’s moment with Miss Wendy, the contemporary music, easy going and easy to follow, friendly people, people, prelude & anthem, casualness, blended/diversity of worship service and congregation, Steve & Kellianne, bubbles

Comments: Need electronic sign

Don’t want a “canned” Bible study

Glad turkey dinner is back

More skits on a stick

Weekly skits on a stick

Would like to see people get more involved

I would like a new member class, midweek Bible study, and spiritual mentor

Everyone should love more and hate less

Preferred Bill and Cathy’s practices to high church Methodism

Praise music is too repetitive

I love my church and always will